COUNTRY USSE (Lithuania) DATE DISTR. 2.1 Jul 1953 NO. OF PRACES 2 NO. OF PRACES 2 NO. OF PRACES 1.50X1 Lake Birghai - This lake is situated at the eastern end of the town. It is about three kilometers from north to south and about one kilometer from present of the town and the period the sit is shout three kilometers from north to south and about one kilometers from north to south and about one kilometer from period the sit is shout three kilometers from north to south and about one kilometer from period the sit is about one and one-half meters deep. The only bridge acre it is a seal wooden from thindy which leads into Muravinka, a small village of about four hundred persons. This village has a large linem 50X factory which employed about one thousand persons during the German occupation in World War II. This factory was built about the turn of the century. Lake Sirshal has no commercial fishing. The only boats very small row boats used by those who went fishing for sport. 2) and 3) This is the principal street in Birchai. It is at least four lanes wide, paved with gravel. Drainage is excellent. From Lake Birchai to the extreme western limit this street is about two and one-half kilometers long. 4) From this point west to point 2) is a distance of about one kilometer. 4) to 5) This street is a part of the highway which leads to Tabirae which leads to Panevezhie (55) New x 2.49(21E). Within the town this street is four lanes wide and is paved with gravel. 7) Birshai district administrative building. It is of brick construction, four floors and erected about 10 four times were the principal street building. CLASSIFICATION COMPTERMITIAL/SEQUENTY IPPOPMATION.		CLASSIFICATION CONFIDENTIAL CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE
PLACE ACQUIRED BY DATE OF INFOR 1) Lake Birzhai- This lake is situated at the eastern end of the town. It is about three kilometers from north to south and about one kilometer from your years are an in the is a sout three kilometers from north to south and about one kilometer from your years in that it is 10 to 20 meters deep. The lake usually freezes early in January and remains frozen until the end of March. During this period the ics is about one and one-half meters deep. The lake usually freezes early in January and remains frozen until the end of March. During this period the ics is about one and one-half meters deep. The only bridge are it is a small wooden foot bridge which leads into Muravianka, a small village of shout four hundred persons. This village has a large lines 50% factory which employed about one thousand persons during the German occupation in World War II. This factory was built about the turn of the century. Lake Birchai has no commercial fishing. The only boate were small row boats used by those who went fishing for sport. 2) and 3) This is the principal street in Birzhai. It is at least four lames wide, paved with gravel. Drainage is excellent. From Lake Birzhai to the extreme vestern limit this street is about two and one-half kilometers long. 4) Prom this point west to point 2) is a distance of about one kilometer. 4) to 5) This street is a part of the highway which leads to Tabirze which is located about 10 kilometers west of Birzhai. Within the town this street is four lames wide and is paved with gravel. 6) This street is of importance because it is part of the highway which leads to Panevenhis (55°441m - 24°21°E). Within the town this street is a four lames wide and is paved with gravel. 7) Birzhai district administrative building. It is of brick construction, four floors and erected about 1936. It is the town's largest building.
NO. OF PAGES 2 NO. OF ENCLS. 1 SOX1 SUPPLEMENT TO SOX1 REPORT NO. THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION THE ACCOUNTY INFORMATION THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION THI	COLINTDV
DATE ACQUIRED BY DATE OF INFOR 1. Lake Birchai- This lake is situated at the eastern end of the town. It is about three kilometers from north to south and about one kilometer from your years to year, and in general is oval shaped. It is a south three kilometers from north to south and about one kilometer from your years guess is that it is 10 to 20 meters deep. The lake usually freezes early in January and remains frozen until the end of March. During this period the ice is about one and one-helf meters deep. The only bridge arm it is a small wooden foot bridge which leads into Muravianks, a small village of shout four hundred persons. This village has a large lime 50% factory which employed about one thousand persons during the German occupation in World War II. This factory was built about the turn of the century. Lake Birchai has no commercial fishing. The only boats were small row boats used by those who went fishing for sport. 2) and 3) This is the principal street in Birchai. It is at least four lanes wide, paved with gravel. Drainage is excellent. From Lake Birchai to the extreme vestern limit this street is about two and one-half kilometers long. 4) From this point west to point 2) is a distance of about one kilometer. 4) to 5) This street is a part of the highway which leads to Tabirze which is located about 10 kilometers west of Birchai. Within the town this street is four lanes wide and is paved with gravel. 6) This street is of importance because it is part of the highway which leads to Panevezhie (55°44°N - 24°21°E). Within the town this street is about three lanes wide and is paved with gravel. 7) Birzhai district administrative building. It is of brick construction, four floors and erected about 1936. It is the town's largest building.
SOURC 1. Lake Birghai- This lake is situated at the eastern end of the town. It is about three kilometers from north to south and about one kilometer from each of the town and about one kilometer from north to south and about one kilometer from the depth but North January and remains frozen until the end of March. During this period the ice is about one and one-half meters deep. The only bridge acrost it is a small voidinge of sbout four hundred persons. This village has a large linen 50X factory which employed about one thousand persons during the German occupation in World War II. This factory was built about the turn of the century. Lake Birghai has no comercial fishing. The only boats were small row boats used by those who went fishing for sport. 2) and 3) This is the principal street in Birghai, It is at least four lanes vide, paved with gravel. Drainage is excellent. From Lake Birghai to the extreme western limit this street is about two and one-half kilometers vide, paved with gravel. Drainage is excellent. From Lake Birghai to the extreme vestern limit this street is about two and one-half kilometers is located about 10 kilometers west of Birghai, Within the town this street is four lanes wide and is paved with gravel. 3. This street is of importance because it is part of the highway which leads to Panevezhis (55°04'N - 24°21'E). Within the town it is about three lanes vide and is paved with gravel. 3. Birghai district administrative building. It is of brick construction, four floors end erected about 1936. It is the town's largest building.	3000101	BIFZIGI - TOWN DESCRIPTION	1 · ·
THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION 1. Lake Birzhai- This lake is situated at the eastern end of the town. It is shout three kilometers from north to south and about one kilometer from my best guess is that it is 10 to 20 meters deep. The lake usually freezes early in January and remains frozen until the end of March. During this period the ice is about one and one-half meters deep. The only bridge acre it is a small wooden foot bridge which leads into Muravianka, a small village of about four hundred persons. This village has a large linem fox featory which employed about one thousand persons during the German occupation in World War II. This factory was built about the turn of the century. Lake Birzhai has no comercial fishing. The only boats were small row boats used by those who went fishing for sport. 2) and 3) This is the principal street in Birzhai. It is at least four lanes wide, pered with gravel. Drainage is excellent. From Lake Birzhai to the extreme western limit this street is about two and one-half kilometers long. 4) From this point west to point 2) is a distance of about one kilometer. 4) to 5) This street is a part of the highway which leads to Tabirze which is located about 10 kilometers vest of Birzhai. Within the town this street is four lanes wide and is paved with gravel. 6) This street is of importance because it is part of the highway which leads to Panevezhis (55°44'N - 24°21'E). Within the town it is about three lanes wide and is paved with gravel. 7) Birzhai district administrative building. It is of brick construction, four floors and erected about 1936. It is the town's largest building.	PLACE ACQUIRE	D .	NO. OF ENCLS. 1 50X1
THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION 1. Lake Birghei. This lake is situated at the eastern end of the town. It is about three kilometers from north to south and about one kilometer from east to west, and in general is oval shaped. It depth but my best guess is that it is 10 to 20 meters deep. The lake usually freezes early in January and remains frozen until the end of March. During this period the ice is about one and one-half meters deep. The only bridge acro it is a small wooden foot bridge which leads into Muravianks, a small village of about four hundred persons. This village has a large linen 50% factory which employed about one thousand persons during the German occupation in World War II. This factory was built about the turn of the century. Lake Birchai has no commercial fishing. The only boats were small row boats used by those who went fishing for sport. 2) and 3) This is the principal street in Birzhai. It is at least four lanes wide, paved with gravel. Drainage is excellent. From Lake Birzhai to the extreme western limit this street is about two and one-half kilometers long. 4) From this point west to point 2) is a distance of about one kilometer. 4) to 5) This street is a part of the highway which leads to Tabirze which is located about 10 kilometers west of Birzhai. Within the town this street is four lense wide and is paved with gravel. 6) This street is of importance because it is part of the highway which leads to Panewezhia (55°44°N - 24°21°E). Within the town it is about three lends to Panewezhia (55°44°N - 24°21°E). Within the town it is about three lends to Panewezhia (55°44°N - 24°21°E). Within the town it is about three lends to Panewezhia (55°44°N - 24°21°E). Within the town it is about three lends to Panewezhia (55°44°N - 24°21°E). Within the town it is about three lends to Panewezhia (55°04°N - 24°21°E). Within the town it is about three lends to Panewezhia (55°04°N - 24°21°E). Within the town it is about three lends to Panewezhia (55°04°N - 24°21°E).	DATE	ED BY	SUPPLEMENT TO50X1 REPORT NO.
SOURC 1) Lake Birzhai- This lake is situated at the eastern end of the town. It is about three kilometers from north to south and about one kilometer from east to west, and in general is oval shaped. Its depth but one was to make the many best guess is that it is 10 to 20 meters deep. The lake usually freezes early in January and remains frozen until the end of March. During this period the ice is about one and one-half meters deep. The only bridge acroit is a small wooden foot bridge which leads into Muravienka, a small village of about four hundred persons. This village has a large lines fox factory which employed about one thousand persons during the German occupation in World War II. This factory was built about the turn of the century. Lake Birzhai has no commercial fishing. The only boats were small row boats used by those who went fishing for sport. 2) and 3) This is the principal street in Birzhai. It is at least four lanes wide, paved with gravel. Drainage is excellent. From Lake Birzhai to the extreme vestern limit this street is about two and one-half kilometers long. 4) From this point west to point 2) is a distance of about one kilometer. 4) to 5) This street is a part of the highway which leads to Tabirze which is located about 10 kilometers west of Birzhai. Within the town this street is four lenes wide and is paved with gravel. 6) This street is of importance because it is part of the highway which leads to Panevezhia (55°44-Wn - 24°21.B). Within the town it is about three leads to Panevezhia (55°44-Wn - 24°21.B). Within the town it is about three leads wide and is paved with gravel. 7) Birzhai district administrative building. It is of brick construction, four floors and erected about 1936. It is the town's largest building.	-
1) Lake Birzhai- This lake is situated at the eastern end of the town. It is about three kilometers from north to south and about one kilometer from east to west, and in general is oval shaped. Its depth but my best guess is that it is 10 to 20 meters deep. The lake usually freezes early in January and remains frozen until the end of March. During this period the ice is about one and one-half meters deep. The only bridge across it is a small wooden foot bridge wich leads into Muraviank, a small village of about four hundred persons. This village has a large linen 50% factory which employed about one thousand persons during the German occupation in World War II. This factory was built about the turn of the century. Lake Birzhai has no commercial fishing. The only boats were small row boats used by those who went fishing for sport. 2) and 3) This is the principal street in Birzhai. It is at least four lanes wide, paved with gravel. Drainage is excellent. From Lake Birzhai to the extreme western limit this street is about two and one-half kilometers long. 4) From this point west to point 2) is a distance of about one kilometer. 4) to 5) This street is a part of the highway which leads to Tabirze which is located about 10 kilometers west of Birzhai. Within the town this street is four lanes wide and is paved with gravel. 6) This street is of importance because it is part of the highway which leads to Panevezhis (55°44°N - 24°21°E). Within the town it is about three lanes wide and is paved with gravel. 7) Birzhai district administrative building. It is of brick construction, four floors and erected about 1936. It is the town's largest building.	THIS DOCUMEN OF THE UNITE AND 794, OF LATION OF IT PROMIBITED 8	NT CONTAINS INFORMATION AFFECTING THE NATIONAL DEFENSE TO STATES, WITHIN THE MEANING OF TITLE 18, SECTIONS 793 THE U.S. COOK, AS ANKHORED. ITS TRANSMISSION OF REVE- TS CONTENTS TO ON RECEIFT BY AN UNAUTHORIZED PERSON IS BY LAW. THE REPRODUCTION OF THIS FORM IS PROMISITED.	THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION
1) Lake Birzhai- This lake is situated at the eastern end of the town. It is about three kilometers from north to south and about one kilometer from east to west, and in general is oval shaped. Its depth but its guess is that it is 10 to 20 meters deep. The lake usually freezes early in January and remains frozen until the end of March. During this period the ice is about one and one-half meters deep. The only bridge across it is a small wooden foot bridge which leads into Muravianka, a small village of about four hundred persons. This village has a large linen 50% factory which employed about one thousand persons during the German occupation in World War II. This factory was built about the turn of the century. Lake Birzhai has no commercial fishing. The only boats were small row boats used by those who went fishing for sport. 2) and 3) This is the principal street in Birzhai. It is at least four lanes wide, paved with gravel. Drainage is excellent. From Lake Birzhai to the extreme western limit this street is about two and one-half kilometers long. 4) From this point west to point 2) is a distance of about one kilometer. 4) to 5) This street is a part of the highway which leads to Tabirze which is located about 10 kilometers west of Birzhai, Within the town this street is four lanes wide and is paved with gravel. 6) This street is of importance because it is part of the highway which leads to Panevezhis (55°44'N - 24°21'E). Within the town it is about three lanes wide and is paved with gravel. 7) Birzhai district administrative building. It is of brick construction, four floors and erected about 1936. It is the town's largest building.	SOURC
1) Lake Birzhai- This lake is situated at the eastern end of the town. It is about three kilometers from north to south and about one kilometer from east to west, and in general is oval shaped. Its depth but its guess is that it is 10 to 20 meters deep. The lake usually freezes early in January and remains frozen until the end of March. During this period the ice is about one and one-half meters deep. The only bridge across the is a small wooden foot bridge which leads into Muravianka, a small village of about four hundred persons. This village has a large linen 50% factory which employed about one thousand persons during the German occupation in World War II. This factory was built about the turn of the century. Lake Birzhai has no commercial fishing. The only boats were small row boats used by those who went fishing for sport. 2) and 3) This is the principal street in Birzhai. It is at least four lanes wide, paved with gravel. Drainage is excellent. From Lake Birzhai to the extreme western limit this street is about two and one-half kilometers long. 4) From this point west to point 2) is a distance of about one kilometer. 4) to 5) This street is a part of the highway which leads to Tabirze which is located about 10 kilometers west of Birzhai, Within the town this street is four lanes wide and is paved with gravel. 6) This street is of importance because it is part of the highway which leads to Panevezhis (55°44'N - 24°21'E). Within the town it is about three lanes wide and is paved with gravel. 7) Birzhai district administrative building. It is of brick construction, four floors and erected about 1936. It is the town's largest building.
1) Lake Birzhai- This lake is situated at the eastern end of the town. It is about three kilometers from north to south and about one kilometer from east to west, and in general is oval shaped. Its depth but its guess is that it is 10 to 20 meters deep. The lake usually freezes early in January and remains frozen until the end of March. During this period the ice is about one and one-half meters deep. The only bridge across it is a small wooden foot bridge which leads into Muravianka, a small village of about four hundred persons. This village has a large linen 50% factory which employed about one thousand persons during the German occupation in World War II. This factory was built about the turn of the century. Lake Birzhai has no commercial fishing. The only boats were small row boats used by those who went fishing for sport. 2) and 3) This is the principal street in Birzhai. It is at least four lanes wide, paved with gravel. Drainage is excellent. From Lake Birzhai to the extreme vestern limit this street is about two and one-half kilometers long. 4) From this point west to point 2) is a distance of about one kilometer. 4) to 5) This street is a part of the highway which leads to Tabirze which is located about 10 kilometers west of Birzhai, Within the town this street is four lanes wide and is paved with gravel. 6) This street is of importance because it is part of the highway which leads to Panevezhis (55°44'N - 24°21'E). Within the town it is about three lanes wide and is paved with gravel. 7) Birzhai district administrative building. It is of brick construction, four floors and erected about 1936. It is the town's largest building.
1) Lake Birzhai- This lake is situated at the eastern end of the town. It is about three kilometers from north to south and about one kilometer from east to west, and in general is oval shaped. Its depth but its guess is that it is 10 to 20 meters deep. The lake usually freezes early in January and remains frozen until the end of March. During this period the ice is about one and one-half meters deep. The only bridge across it is a small wooden foot bridge which leads into Muravianka, a small village of about four hundred persons. This village has a large linen 50% factory which employed about one thousand persons during the German occupation in World War II. This factory was built about the turn of the century. Lake Birzhai has no commercial fishing. The only boats were small row boats used by those who went fishing for sport. 2) and 3) This is the principal street in Birzhai. It is at least four lanes wide, paved with gravel. Drainage is excellent. From Lake Birzhai to the extreme western limit this street is about two and one-half kilometers long. 4) From this point west to point 2) is a distance of about one kilometer. 4) to 5) This street is a part of the highway which leads to Tabirze which is located about 10 kilometers west of Birzhai, Within the town this street is four lanes wide and is paved with gravel. 6) This street is of importance because it is part of the highway which leads to Panevezhis (55°44'N - 24°21'E). Within the town it is about three lanes wide and is paved with gravel. 7) Birzhai district administrative building. It is of brick construction, four floors and erected about 1936. It is the town's largest building.	. 4
is about three kilometers from north to south and about one kilometer 1750 east to west, and in general is oval shaped. Its depth but we best guess is that it is 10 to 20 meters deep. The lake usually freezes early in January and remains frozen until the end of March. During this period the ice is about one and one-half meters deep. The only bridge across it is a small wooden foot bridge which leads into Muravianka, a small village of about four hundred persons. This village has a large linen 50x factory which employed about one thousand persons during the German occupation in World War II. This factory was built about the turn of the century. Lake Birzhai has no commercial fishing. The only boats were small row boats used by those who went fishing for sport. 2) and 3) This is the principal street in Birzhai. It is at least four lanes wide, paved with gravel. Drainage is excellent. From Lake Birzhai to the extreme western limit this street is about two and one-half kilometers long. 4) From this point west to point 2) is a distance of about one kilometer. 4) to 5) This street is a part of the highway which leads to Tabirze which is located about 10 kilometers west of Birzhai. Within the town this street is four lanes wide and is paved with gravel. 6) This street is of importance because it is part of the highway which leads to Panevezhis (55°4½'N - 24°21'E). Within the town it is about three lanes wide and is paved with gravel. 7) Birzhai district administrative building. It is of brick construction, four floors and erected about 1936. It is the town's largest building.	* 1.
is about three kilometers from north to south and about one kilometer 1750 east to west, and in general is oval shaped. Its depth but we best guess is that it is 10 to 20 meters deep. The lake usually freezes early in January and remains frozen until the end of March. During this period the ice is about one and one-half meters deep. The only bridge across it is a small wooden foot bridge which leads into Muravianka, a small village of about four hundred persons. This village has a large linen 50x factory which employed about one thousand persons during the German occupation in World War II. This factory was built about the turn of the century. Lake Birzhai has no commercial fishing. The only boats were small row boats used by those who went fishing for sport. 2) and 3) This is the principal street in Birzhai. It is at least four lanes wide, paved with gravel. Drainage is excellent. From Lake Birzhai to the extreme western limit this street is about two and one-half kilometers long. 4) From this point west to point 2) is a distance of about one kilometer. 4) to 5) This street is a part of the highway which leads to Tabirze which is located about 10 kilometers west of Birzhai. Within the town this street is four lanes wide and is paved with gravel. 6) This street is of importance because it is part of the highway which leads to Panevezhis (55°4½'N - 24°21'E). Within the town it is about three lanes wide and is paved with gravel. 7) Birzhai district administrative building. It is of brick construction, four floors and erected about 1936. It is the town's largest building.
wide, paved with gravel. Drainage is excellent. From Lake Birzhai to the extreme western limit this street is about two and one-half kilometers long. 4) From this point west to point 2) is a distance of about one kilometer. 4) to 5) This street is a part of the highway which leads to Tabirze which is located about 10 kilometers west of Birzhai. Within the town this street is four lanes wide and is paved with gravel. 6) This street is of importance because it is part of the highway which leads to Panevezhis (55°44'N - 24°21'E). Within the town it is about three lanes wide and is paved with gravel. 7) Birzhai district administrative building. It is of brick construction, four floors and erected about 1936. It is the town's largest building. 60X CLASSIFICATION CONFIDENTIAL/SECURITY INFORMATION			I at the content and of the town. It
 4) to 5) This street is a part of the highway which leads to Tabirze which is located about 10 kilometers west of Birzhai. Within the town this street is four lanes wide and is paved with gravel. 6) This street is of importance because it is part of the highway which leads to Panevezhis (55⁰44'N - 24⁰21'E). Within the town it is about three lanes wide and is paved with gravel. 7) Birzhai district administrative building. It is of brick construction, four floors and erected about 1936. It is the town's largest building.		is about three kilometers from nor east to west, and in general is over my best guess is that it is 10 to early in January and remains froze period the ice is about one and on it is a small wooden foot bridge willage of about four hundred perstactory which employed about one to occupation in World War II. This century. Lake Birzbai has no comme	th to south and about one kilometer it 50% al shaped. its depth but 20 meters deep. The lake usually freezes in until the end of March. During this ie-half meters deep. The only bridge acroshich leads into Muravianka, a small cons. This village has a large linen 50% shousand persons during the German factory was built about the turn of the ercial fishing. The only boats is located about 10 kilometers west of Birzhai. Within the town this street is four lanes wide and is paved with gravel. 6) This street is of importance because it is part of the highway which leads to Panevezhis (55°44'N - 24°21'E). Within the town it is about three lanes wide and is paved with gravel. 7) Birzhai district administrative building. It is of brick construction, four floors and erected about 1936. It is the town's largest building. 60 CLASSIFICATION CONFIDENTIAL/SECURITY INFORMATION		is about three kilometers from nor east to west, and in general is over my best guess is that it is 10 to early in January and remains froze period the ice is about one and on it is a small wooden foot bridge willage of about four hundred personal factory which employed about one to occupation in World War II. This century. Lake Birzhai has no comme were small row boats used the extreme western limit this straight the extreme western limit this straight in the straight in t	th to south and about one kilometer it 50% al shaped. its depth but 20 meters deep. The lake usually freezes in until the end of March. During this methalf meters deep. The only bridge acrosphich leads into Muravianka, a small cons. This village has a large linen 50% abous and persons during the German factory was built about the turn of the ercial fishing. The only boats of by those who went fishing for sport. The Birzhai. It is at least four lanes are excellent. From Lake Birzhai to leads to Panevezhis (55°44'N - 24°21'E). Within the town it is about three lanes wide and is paved with gravel. 7) Birzhai district administrative building. It is of brick construction, four floors and erected about 1936. It is the town's largest building. 50X CLASSIFICATION CONFIDENTIAL/SECURITY INFORMATION		is about three kilometers from nor east to west, and in general is over my best guess is that it is 10 to early in January and remains froze period the ice is about one and on it is a small wooden foot bridge willage of about four hundred persecupation in World War II. This century. Lake Birzhai has no comme were small row boats used and 3) This is the principal street wide, paved with gravel. Drainage the extreme western limit this street long.	th to south and about one kilometer if 50% al shaped. its depth but 20 meters deep. The lake usually freezes in until the end of March. During this inches the half meters deep. The only bridge acrossical fields into Muravianka, a small cons. This village has a large linen 50% thousand persons during the German factory was built about the turn of the ercial fishing. The only boats of by those who went fishing for sport. In Birzhai. It is at least four lanes is excellent. From Lake Birzhai to evet is about two and one-half kilometers floors and erected about 1936. It is the town's largest building. 50X CLASSIFICATION CONFIDENTIAL/SECURITY INFORMATION		is about three kilometers from nor east to west, and in general is over my best guess is that it is 10 to early in January and remains froze period the ice is about one and on it is a small wooden foot bridge willage of about four hundred persecupation in World War II. This century. Lake Birzhai has no comme were small row boats used about one the wide, paved with gravel. Drainage the extreme western limit this straight from this point west to point 2) is 10.5 This street is a part of the is located about 10 kilometers were	th to south and about one kilometer IT-50X al shaped is about three kilometers from nor east to west, and in general is over my best guess is that it is 10 to early in January and remains froze period the ice is about one and on it is a small wooden foot bridge willage of about four hundred persecutory which employed about one to occupation in World War II. This century. Lake Birzhai has no comme were small row boats used and 3) This is the principal street wide, paved with gravel. Drainage the extreme western limit this street long. 4) From this point west to point 2) is 10 to 5) This street is a part of the is located about 10 kilometers were street is four lanes wide and is 10. This street is of importance became leads to Panevezhis (55°44°N - 24°C).	th to south and about one kilometer 1750X al shaped. its depth but 20 meters deep. The lake usually freezes in until the end of March. During this methalf meters deep. The only bridge acrossinch leads into Muravianka, a small cons. This village has a large linen 50X chousand persons during the German factory was built about the turn of the procial fishing. The only boats of by those who went fishing for sport. It is at least four lanes is excellent. From Lake Birzhai to seet is about two and one-half kilometers is a distance of about one kilometer. It is a distance of the highway which are it is part of the highway which are it is part of the highway which are it is part of the highway which are it is about three DISTRIBUTION		is about three kilometers from nor east to west, and in general is over my best guess is that it is 10 to early in January and remains froze period the ice is about one and on it is a small wooden foot bridge willage of about four hundred persecutory which employed about one to occupation in World War II. This century. Lake Birzhai has no comme were small row boats used? 2) and 3) This is the principal street wide, paved with gravel. Drainage the extreme western limit this strictles. 4) From this point west to point 2) is located about 10 kilometers were street is four lanes wide and is part of the is located about 10 kilometers were street is four lanes wide and is paved with gravel. 6) This street is of importance became to Panevezhis (55°44'N - 24°2 lanes wide and is paved with gravel. 7) Birzhai district administrative burfloors and erected about 1936. In	th to south and about one kilometer 1750% al shaped. its depth but 20 meters deep. The lake usually freezes in until the end of March. During this methalf meters deep. The only bridge across thich leads into Muravianka, a small cons. This village has a large linen 50% thousand persons during the German factory was built about the turn of the ercial fishing. The only boats of by those who went fishing for sport. It is at least four lanes is excellent. From Lake Birzhai to seet is about two and one-half kilometers and is a distance of about one kilometer. It is a distance of the highway which severed with gravel. In this part of the highway which construction, the second of the birch construction, four the town's largest building.

Enclosure A - sketch of Birzhai

CONFIDENTIAL/SECURITY INFORMATION

العالم المعارين والسيامي والوجد

Contact the second of the first contact of the second of th of the control of the first of the control of the c engligist tig bet in beginning til hette blike